CHARLOTTESVILLE, VA., April 27.
After a day's rest, due to rain, Virginia's ball team defeated Trinity, of diartford to-day, 21 to 3. Both of the visiting twirlers were pounded hard, Brickley retiring under fire in the fifth in favor of Ferris, who was equally ineffective.

Berkeley, Virginia's shortstop, batted and fielded in big league style, while Thurman contributed a triple, and Captain White chimed in with two doubles.

The entire Virginia infield put up a snappy article of ball, in marked contrast to the ragged fielding of the visitors, who seemed to accept the hard chances and miss the easy ones.
